

Island Home Park

A streetcar suburb developed after the Gay Street Bridge opened in 1898 Built on Perez Dickinson late 1800's "Island Home" demonstration farm
The Island Home Park Company developed Island Home Park

The Island Home Community Club

"Every resident of the new suburb contributed $3.00 for membership in The Island Home Community Club. The Island Home Park Co. matched the club's money dollar for dollar to buy more trees and shrubs for the park."

Knoxville News Sentinel, September 11, 1947

was active for decades when important issues affected the
